

You cant seem to see, your not the man for me...
I put down the line, and you kept following me... don't be confused when i beg and cry... cuz i can feel you looking at me through your astral eyes ohh your astral eyes your astral eyes stop looking at me with your astral eyes oooooooooooooooooooo
I need to put salt around my house I need to be quiet as a mouse ive got to shut my windows at night ive got to make sure my life is sealed real tight I feel you watching me your stalking me you'd start lie, you'd make me cry, your always wiping at your eyes, you are the master of your lies, you are a monster in disguise, oooh oooh oooh oooh

I have to be quiet as a mouse i have to put salt around my house I have to close my windows at night I have to seal my life up real tight.
